Project title:	Learning Greek and English as foreign languages
Description:	The beneficiaries are immigrants from various countries of Europe and Asia and local people. They participate in courses that last 9 months/3 hours per week every year
Strengths:	The beneficiaries become more fluent in English and Greek and are able to give exams for a certificate. They have also the opportunity to participate in intercultural events where they promote their own culture, they exchange experiences with local people or people from other cultures
Weaknesses:	Some of them are not able to finish the course because of their unstable work situation
